

Dave Hopwood

Author and Speaker

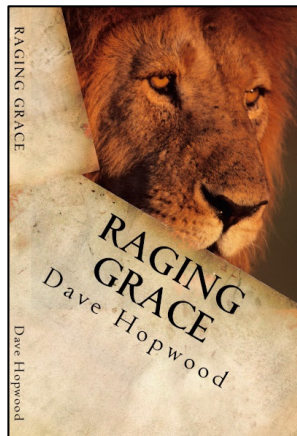

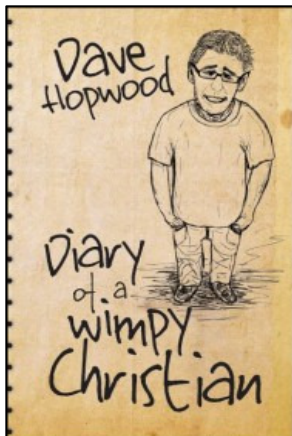

Accessible, Entertaining and Honest

Dave Hopwood spends much of his time writing and speaking, using films, stories, visuals and modern media to communicate the Bible in a friendly, accessible style. He regularly speaks at churches, conferences, weekends and events around the country, and can be contacted via his website.

Resources

He has penned a fistful of books, including - Film & Faith (66 movie clips about life and God) and Top Stories (31 parables of Jesus retold); Diary of a Wimpy Christian and Raging Grace (honest, humorous thoughts about life and faith); The Groovy Gospel and Jonny & The Fog (retelling the Bible for youngsters). All contemporary, entertaining and relevant reads to help folks get the Bible today. All Dave's books are available on Amazon.co.uk.

Dave publishes useful resources and ideas via his website each week: davehopwood.com. Including Film Friday - a weekly feature that begins with a current film and ends up in the Bible. You can sign up to receive a regular email detailing each week's free resources.

Dave is available to speak at:

- Church services and other events
- Church weekends & conferences
- Film & faith evenings
- Workshops on writing & speaking

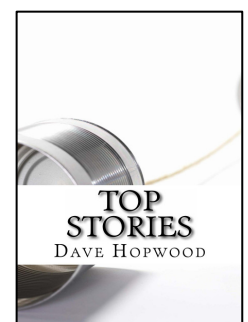

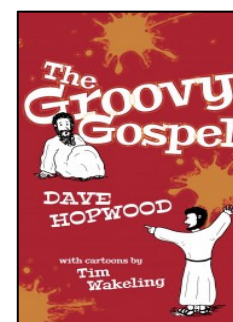

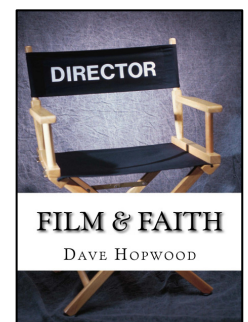

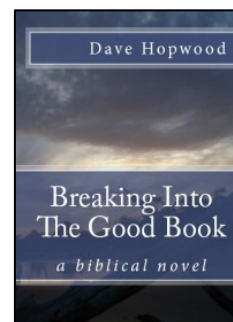

What Others Say

'The Bible as you've never read it before.'
Adrian Plass, author and speaker

'Whenever I hear Dave speak I am inspired and challenged by his passion for God... his words always propel me back to the Bible.'
Stuart Townend, singer/songwriter

'Honest, plain speaking and contemporary.'
Carl Beach, Christian Vision for Men

'I think The Groovy Gospel is the best Bible ever made.'
Daniel, aged 7

Contact - Website: davehopwood.com. Email: dave@davehopwood.com